

Leverage: Choose to Train

PROVERBS 22:6 (P. 453)

Week of October 20, 2013

Leverage • Message 3

Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it.

Proverbs 22:6

On Sunday, I made the assertion that all of us either have children who need training or are children ourselves. What do you think of that?

Why is it hard for us to choose to intentionally train someone else?

Choosing to Train

Start them off...

What does it mean to start someone off?

Read Deuteronomy 6:1-9 and Deuteronomy 11:18-21. According to these verses, what should we be doing to start children off well?

... on the way they should go ...

What does this mean? What is the way a child should go?

On Sunday, I said that we need to learn about those we train, how should we go about doing that?

Read Proverbs 29:15, 17. What are these verses saying in regards to discipline? How might these lessons apply to adults as well?

... when they are old, they will not turn from it.

On Sunday, I made a statement that if children leave the path, they will at least know the way back. What do you think of that idea?

Take it Home:

Who are my "kids"?

What is stopping me from training them?

Kevin reminded us on Sunday that one way God shows love to us is by helping us grow in maturity. Knowing that, what is my next step?

Leverage: Choose to Train

PROVERBS 22:6 (P. 453)

Week of October 20, 2013

Leverage • Message 3

Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it.

Proverbs 22:6

On Sunday, I made the assertion that all of us either have children who need training or are children ourselves. What do you think of that?

Why is it hard for us to choose to intentionally train someone else?

Choosing to Train

Start them off...

What does it mean to start someone off?

Read Deuteronomy 6:1-9 and Deuteronomy 11:18-21. According to these verses, what should we be doing to start children off well?

... on the way they should go ...

What does this mean? What is the way a child should go?

On Sunday, I said that we need to learn about those we train, how should we go about doing that?

Read Proverbs 29:15, 17. What are these verses saying in regards to discipline? How might these lessons apply to adults as well?

... when they are old, they will not turn from it.

On Sunday, I made a statement that if children leave the path, they will at least know the way back. What do you think of that idea?

Take it Home:

Who are my "kids"?

What is stopping me from training them?

Kevin reminded us on Sunday that one way God shows love to us is by helping us grow in maturity. Knowing that, what is my next step?